

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, JUNE 27, 1892.

PRICE ONE CENT.

WALKED TO DEATH.

Somnambulist Dore Falls Out of a Window and Is Killed.

His Wife, Aroused by a Cry, Sees

Him Fall.

All His Life He Had Had the Habit of Sleep Walking.

Shortly after midnight this morning Richard Dore, of 243 West Sixty-sixth street, while walking in his sleep, feil out of the window of his room into the yard, striking tually works.

BROOKLYN EDITION OF THE EVENING WORLD---ONE CEN

SLAIN IN COURT.

A Wronged Girl's Brother Shoots Her Betrayer Dead.

Terrible Act of Human Vengeance in Judge Martine's Court Chamber.

Max Clerget Had Just Pleaded Guilty of Assault on Little Sarah Devin.

Her Half-Paralyzed Brother Drew a Pistol and Sent a Bullet Through His Heart.

Young Devin Is Locked Up in the Tombs to Await the Inquest-Great Excitement Follows the Tragedy.

Human vengeance never was more prompt. more summary or more sure than that which was meted out to-day by Edward Devin, a half-paralyzed and weak-minded young man, against the man who had just confessed that he had criminally assaulted little fifteen-yearold and frail-framed Sarah Devin, the sister of the man of vengeance.

Court of General Sessions, where Judge Mar- prison for many years. tine presided.

Rev. Thomas Dixon, jr., had just pleaded to the indictment against him, as told in another column, and had gone out with his lawyers, and Clerk Hall was calling the prisoners in turn from the pen at the rear of the court-room to plead to the indictments the court-room to plead to the indictments returned against them.

Which is given just as it was reliabled in ... I'm very sorry for all what I done, but I or was tuitsh, like all the fellows, not thinking to was tuitsh, like all the fellows, not thinking to was tuitsh, like all the fellows, not thinking to was tuitsh, like all the fellows, not thinking to was tuitsh, like all the fellows, not thinking to was tuitsh, like all the fellows, not thinking to was tuitsh, like all the fellows, not thinking the fellows, not th returned against them.

Agent Stocking, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, entered at lytic brother solved the problem completely. seats on a settee, almost behind and at the right hand of Judge Martine. A glance at the child-she was put a child, that she was not quite up to the standard mentally. She gazed about her with childish

At 11.45 o'clock Clerk Hall called a name that quickened her interest. A young man with sailow face emerged from the pen and walked down the able to the rail in front of the Judge's bench.

his name was Max Clerget, and acknowledged that he was guilty of the charge of criminal

His lawyers, Blake & Sullivan, he said, old and lived at 447 East Sixteenth street. were in another part of the court, and Judge He seemed to be dazed, and was apparently Martine remanded him to the Tomts to be indifferent to his surroundings. He mainbrought down again next Thursday, when twenty years would be pronounced. THE AVENGER APPEARED. So the austere Judge declared. But a swifter and a more severe punishment was impending over the sallow-faced prisoner eyed, innocent little victim, then car and pushed their prisoner aboard. wheeled and hurried back through the aisle that parted the throng in the chamber.

His was a shambling figure 5 feet 3 inches in height. He wore an alpaca coal, striped | quired half a dozen policemen to keep it back outing shirt with white neglige tie, dark to enable the prisoner to pass into the prison. users and gatters. He carried a black derty hat in his hand.

tled with downcast face back towards the dozen times to an Evening World reporter, pen where the prisoners are kept.

He never reached that point in his journey make no further reply. to sing sing. As he advanced towards it valted for a full hour in the corridor for the ourt-room door to be opened and had struggled into court as soon as it was open, dragging a paralyzed right leg after him and anging a paralyzed right arm at his side, half rose from the seat he had chosen at the end of the settee abutting on the west side of the paralytic, and the little, bullet-shaped bend, with its red face, was like a ball of fire CLARKSON WON'T BE LEADER, PLATT, MILLER & BROOKFIELD. VEGA SAFE IN PORT. in its eagerness.

When Cierget arrived nearly opposite him, the paralyzed right arm came up to a level the paralyzed right arm came up to a level he Hears the Candidate for Presi- Probable Firm Style of the Re- Still Mystery as to the Vessel SHOT HIS BISTER'S ASSAILANT.

The prisoner saw it and listed his eyes. At the moment there was a flash and a report, and Clerget staggered backward. He fell into the arms of half a dozen spectators, while Court Officers Tighe, Knight and Coll-yer rushed towards the bullet-headed paralytic.

Devin stood on his feet now, and was struggling to control that right arm so as to bring the cheap pistol in his hand to bear again upon the body of the fallen Clerget.

Women screamed and men cried " Murder!" collided and tumbled over each other in their mittee. excitement, while Judge Martine stood up and hammered for order with all his might. Court Officer Collyn reached the man with the pistor first. With one twist he wrenched the pistol from the withered hand and hurled the man to the seat, where a half dozen men pinned him down. He made no struggle, only exclaiming:

"I done it ! I done it ! I am her brother." THE BULLET SPED SURE. Attention was then turned to the man who had tallen. A doctor was sent for, and by order of Judge Martine the court-ro m was

But Max Clerget had paid the highest penalty on earth for his fearful crime. His higher tribunal.

utes, but the eyes were sightless, the lips of success. voiceless. He had been shot through the

It was a cheap, self-cocking pistol, with five chambers, that Officer Collyer wrested from the avenger. It held one 32-calibre oullet, and had done its work only too well. Clerget's slayer told the officer that he was Edward Devin, brother of the little girl complainant, and that he lived at 447 East Sixteenth spreet. He said he was twenty-five years old and was employed as a porter in an

The court room was crowded with pleaders. brutality and at last revealed the cause. Her witnesses, friends of prisoners, jurors and assailant was arrested, and from the Tombs he wrose the following letter to his counsel. Rev. Thomas Dixon, jr., had just pleaded to which is given just as it was written:

The swift vangeance of Sarah Devin's parathe private door with a little girl. They took | Judge Martine adjourned court temporarily though fifteen years old—was enough to show | tade from the minds of the participants and wonder and childish pleasure at the novel care of the Children's Society and was taken

Devin, heavily handcuffed, was taken by Roundsman McCann and Policeman Lake, of the City Hull squad, across to the Coroners' office, and arraigned before Coroner Schul ze. onse to the usual question, he said An enormous crowd preceded and blocked the street and entrance.

Coroner Schultze took Devin's pedigree. The prisoner said he was twenty-five years tained silence when asked if he had anything enience to State prison for from ten to to say concerning the crime he had just committed. Coroner Schultze then committed him to the Tombs pending the inquest. Devin was fairly carried out of the Coroners' office building on his way to the Tombs. He appeared to be in a state of total collapse.

The car was followed up Centre street by a large crowd, and when the Tombs was reached the throng was so great that it reing was, "I have killed him because he Every eye was turned upon him as he hus- ruined my sister." He repeated this a half but when questioned about the deed he would At the Tombs Devin was searched and sallow-faced young man, who had locked up in a cell on the second tier of the > Detective McCauley's Prisoner Still at Large.

The police have not yet succeeded in recapturing Curran, who escaped from Detecthe action abutting on the west side of tive McCauley at the Mott street door of Police Headquarters on Sunday morning. Curdent "Prefers Another Man."

Republican National Committee.

order by Gen. J. S. Clarkson. After the roll over the New York Central Statistical. Men ran this way and that, some toward the scene of the shooting, and others seeking the Boor and placed in nomination Gen. J. S. the Boor and placed in nomination Gen. J. S. tion of President of the State League, al-

Minneapolis Convention they closed on a of this city, are going to make an effort to united party. That the friends of Mr. Blaine put him in as Co. McAloin's successor. were disappointed we all know, but to-day nees of the Convention and would be found at | J. Sloat Fassett with him. the front until the close of the campaign.

cleared of the few spectators who had not fight in November."

Mr. Fassett paid an eloquent tribute to James Owens and M. C. Burke. Gen. Clarkson, and said that the days and penalty on earth for his fearful crime. His soul had been sent into the presence of a downard to do for the Republican important part. The organization now higher tribunal.

Can party. With him at the head of the has a membership of about 100,000 in this National Committee there could be no doubt State, and it expects to make a harder fight

Gen. Clarkson took the floor as Mr. Fassett concluded his speech, and said in substance—tion is the election of officers for the year, that he wished to say to the members of the the ratincation of the Republican National and Sailed from Havre forty-four days.

Committee that he fully appreciated what Committee that he fully appreciated what had been said by Mr. Fassett, and he felt the fight now on Land. more grateful to him and the other members of the Committee for their kind words than panied by the Sixty-night Regiment Band. he could express.

of the Committee of forty-two members of the that 3,000 men will be in line. Committee, yet be had learned this morning tast night | Largin, with several others, went | It is said that Messrs, Platt and Miller, who men think that the National line freightship to a house in Fifteenth street, where a wed-ding was in progress, drove all the guests out, and literally "beid the fort" till the offi-cers came. Larkin was held pending the production of the wedding guests as wit-

TO UNTAX STATE BANK NOTES.

Also Those of Persons and of Town and City Corporations.

Who Knows Lucy Dawson? The police are endeavoring to find the sister of Alice Daylson, a seventeen-year-old girl, who came from Cleveland O., to meet her sister Lucy, who lived at 68 West One Hun-dreath aireet. When Alice Inquired there she learned that Lucy had moved, and no one could tell her where. Alice is in the matron's care at Poilce Headquarters.

Harry Howard to Handle the Trowel.

HUBSON, June 27.—The corner-stone of the Clerget glanced once at his wondering. The officers hailed a passing Fourth avenue State Volunteer Fireman's Home will be laid in this city to-morrow with appropriate ceremonies. The veteran New York fireman, Harry Howard, will han le the trowel in laying the corner-stone.

publican State Managers.

And Fassett Talks Harmony to the Mr. Cleveland to Meet Democratic

The delegates chosen to attend the Con-WASHINGTON, June 27.—It was 11.30 o'clock vention of Republican League Clubs, which this morning when the meeting of the Na- will be held at Rochester to-morrow, left New tional Republican Committee was called to York at 10.10 this morning in a special train though it is said that the friends of President He said that when the doors closed on the James A. Flanchard, of the Republican Club

Mr. Blanchard is now in Washington, but they are the earnest supporters of the nomi- will arrive in Rochester te-morrow, and bring

The party included delegates from forty "We are entering," he said, "upon a cam- clubs in this city, ten in Brockiya and fifteen paign which is no holiday excursion. The in queens, suffolk and lifehmond countles. Democrats have nominated their strongest. Among the delegates were: Gen. James R. man, and while the situation is desperate. O'Beirne, Charles A. Hess, Henry Glenson, every Republican who is really a Republican. Theodore Broadhead, J. Stewart Wilson, T. will do everything in his power to win the Thomas Fortune, C. W. Anderson, Dr. Thomas fight in November."

> This is the second National campaign in than ever before.

ticket and laying out the plan of battle for The New York City delegates are accom-and they and their friends will have the right He had received the personal individual of line in the big parade which will take place tender of the support for the chairmanship in Rochester to-morrow night. It is expected

| count syreet. He said he was twenty-Any pears old and was employed as a porter in an embrodery factory in Church street. Prom his tak it was plain than he was not of very strong mind. In his pocket was a intoge of his desiry-loved interester, and when the post of the committee, yet he had learned this morning to love of his desiry-loved interester, and when the post of the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and carried the body of Max Clerget, and at 12.15 six men came with a stretcher and lytic brother solved the problem completely.

KNIVES SHARPENED FOR PATTERSON.

Judge Martine adjourned court temporarily after the shooting. As soon as the body of the dead man had been taken away the court resumed its session, but the scene will never resumed its session, but the scene will never tade from the minds of the participants and witnesses till their lives have faded out.

Little Sarah Devin was committed to the participants and or otherwise.

Care of the Children's Society and was taken away from the court-groom by Agent Stocking.

Devin Locked UP in the form as a point of the participants and the court-groom by Agent Stocking.

Devin Locked UP in the form as a point of the participant and the court-groom by Agent Stocking.

Devin Locked UP in the form as a point of the participant and the court-groom by Agent Stocking.

Devin Locked UP in the form as a point of the participant and the court-groom by Agent Stocking.

Devin Locked UP in the form as a point of the participant and the court-groom by Agent Stocking.

Devin Locked UP in the form as a point of the participant and the participants and the participant and the participants and the participant and the participants and the participant and the participant and the participants and the participant and the particip

WILL MEET GROVER IN NEW YORK.

The Chairman of the Notification Committee of the Chairman of the Notification Committee the pull Committee to wait upon Mr. Cleveland and ascertain when and where it will be his pleasure to meet the rull Committee. The ing of that vessel, not having heard from her of Buffalo; W. A. Cellup, of Vincennes, Ind. of City of Maxico, June 27.—The rainy seasince the death of her tather, of the saccratin when and was the first period own with terrific city of Maxico, June 27.—The rainy seasince the death of her tather, of the saccratin when and was the first period own with terrific city of Maxico, June 27.—The rainy seasince th old, was recovered from the East River at the latter trade. She had a full cargo of generic 5s this morning and taken to his noine at 176 Delancey street. He was drowned at on Friday at the fost of Delancey street.

Seven-year-old Rodger Steck, of 105 Cherry street, was found drowned in the East River at the foot of Market street, to-day. It is supposed he fell overboard.

TOPERA, Kan., June 27.—I. A. Detwiller.

President of the Fourth Congressional Discrete to the Runsas delegates to the People's National Convention, has written a letter in behalf of a number of the Kansas delegates, urging Aira Assins, of South Pueblo, to become a candidate for South Pueblo, to become a candidate for the Runsas delegates. The Lydia registered 1,201 tons. She was built at Tusket, Nova Scotla, in 1874, and South Pueblo, to become a candidate for several south of the Runsas delegates, urging Aira Assins, of South Pueblo, to become a candidate for several south of the Runsas delegates, urging Aira Assins, of South Pueblo, to become a candidate for several south of the Runsas delegates, urging Aira Assins, of South Pueblo, to become a candidate for several south of the Board of the Board

Which Sunk the Yarmouth Ship.

Leaders in New York Next Month. The Supposed Lost Steamship Arrived at This Port To-Day. :

> Fears of the Safety of the Italy, Catania, Lydia and Vanduara,

The steamship Vega, which the agents feared had been in a collision at sea with the sailing vessel Fred B. Taylor, arrived at the South Atlantic Dock this morning. she is commanded by Capt. Rosa, who reported to her agents, G. Amsinek & Co., of 148 Pearl street, that he had not seen the l'aylor. Hence the mystery with regard to the capsized vessel, supposed to be the Taylor, remains unsolved. The first news of a wrecked vessel in midocean was brought to port by Capt. Cassens, of the Dutch steamer Ocean. He reported sighting the after half of a large sailing vessel, which had evidently been cut in two by a steamship. The belief that the lil-fated vessel was the Taylor is founded on the fact that she is several days overdue, and that the stern half sighted by the Ocean's captain, bore the name of Yarmouth, N. S., the port from which the Taylor botted. The Taylor is a big British salling ship of Yarmouth, N. S., and was chartered by Paul Gerhard, of the Brazil Mail Steamship Company, for John Dunu & Son, of ling an examination. 74 Wall street, who intended loading her for twenty-two. Capt. Hurlbert is only twenty-eight years home since Wednesday last. old, but was considered a good seaman. His

BCENER OF THE MURDER.

BCENER OF THE MURDER.

The scene was the Chamber of Part I. of the flow yould have sent him to Court of General Sessions, where Judge Martine presided.

The Ittle girl was made very iii by his

The Selection of the candidate for the Court of Appeals Judgeship tails to the State Constitute, and several names have been presented for the vacancy caused by the death which the law would have sent him to prison for many years.

The Selection of the candidate for the Court of Appeals Judgeship tails to the State Constitute, and several names have been presented for the vacancy caused by the death which the law would have sent him to prison for many years.

The little girl was made very iii by his

The little girl was made very iii by his

The little girl was made very iii by his

The selection of the candidate for the Court of Appeals Judgeship tails to the State Constitute, and several names have been presented for the vacancy caused by the death which the colliding vessel must have of the first the colliding vessel must have of the Whiskey Trust, and will distill death been a heavy steamer. The wreckage he sighted was clean cut and showed that the colliding vessel must have of the Whiskey Trust, and will distill the showed that the colliding vessel must have of the release from sugar.

The selection of the candidate for the Court of Appeals Judgeship tails to the State Constitute, and several names have been presented for the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Judge is the same. The wreckage he sighted was clean cut and showed that the colliding vessel must have of the Whiskey Trust, and will distill the showed that the colliding vessel must have of the court article, and several names have been presented from the colliding vessel must have of the court article, and several names have been presented from the colliding vessel must have of the wind the colliding vessel must have of the court article, and several names have been presented from the colliding vessel must be of the wind the collid

It is said that Messys. Platt and Miller, who control the State Committee, are determined to "turn down" extrolled Justice sacebol. Patterson, who is Chairman of the County Executive Committee, on account of his steady opposition to the bosses at the Minneapolis. Convention and his close affination with the Harrison leaders.

Mr. Patterson worked with the Harrison people all alone, here and at Minneapolis, in opposition to the great majority of his colleagues from this city. By so doing he mortally offended the Hunne leaders and now it is reported that they are going totake their revence.

since her departure from Rio Janeiro. She is Bealis, June 27.—The tone on the Bourse to-day was weak, especially for roubles, which fell I mark 25 piennige. The depression was due to the reports of the advance of cholera from Asia.

It is probable that ex-President Cleycland will be in this city by the middle of July to meet some of the leaters of his party and was built in 18s1 at Glasgow by Stephenson look over the field.

The Chairman of the Notification Committee of the Chairman of

> Two Drowned in the East River. has been running in the freight and passenger trade to and from this city until a few The bady of John Chadwick, fifteen years months ago, when her Company abandoned overdue than the Taylor, and as she also Oddities at the Police Auction Sale, halls from Yarmouth and was bound for this The twenty-first auction sale of unclaimed city, it is not improbable that she is the lost property was hell at Police Heaviguarters to vessel. The Lydia sailed from Bordeaux on Among the things offered were a fish a box of maccaroni, a nursing-portic indicated by the Ocean, and might be the vessel passed by that steamer cut in two. Another Nova Scotta ship, the Vanduara, of Wants Adams to be a Candidate. Yarmouth, is also overdue at this port, and is was rebuilt in 1888. She was owned by William Law & Co., of Yarmouth. The Vanduars who robbed the United States Express Company at Washington, D. C., was arrested here her owner was G. H. Lovitt, of Yarmouth.

JUDGE GRESHAM -- Much obliged, really, but I can't afford it.

GRESHAM NOT THE MAN.

Will Not Allow His Name to Be

INFECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, !

tendered to him; says his name will not be consent, and that he has given no assurance

ROCK ISLAND IN DANGER.

The Great Dike of the West End

May Break at Any Moment.

ROCK ISLAND, III., June 27.—The entire

This dike protects a large portion of town from complete inundation.

SENATOR HILL'S MOVEMENTS.

City To-Morrow.

Senator David B. Hill, who is the guest of Gen. Ferdinand P. Earle at Normandle-by-to-day that he would come to town to-mor-

PERCIVAL DRAYTON BURIED.

from the Keeley Treatment.

The funeral of Percival L. Drayton, a cousin way looking to a reconciliation between J. Coleman Drayton and his wife.

MISS AGNES K. MURPHY TO WED.

Will Become Mrs. Mulligan.

Miss Agnes K. Murphy, of 777 East One Hundred and Seventy-seventh street, the woman ever elected homorary member of the Phi Deita Phi. Gov. Hill appointed Miss Mur-phy Notary Public Mr. Munigan was a class-mate of Miss Murphy at the University Law School.

The couple will spend the honeymoon in Canada.

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Senstor Brice Says It Will Be Reor ganized About July 12.

INT ASSOCIATED PRESE!

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 27, -Senator Brice stopped over here to-day. Asked when the National Committee would organize, he said :

Notification has appointed a sub-committee of five to make arrangements with Mr.

cleveland and the Committee will then perteet its reorganization. Whether Mr. Whit-ney is made Chairman or not, he will take an active part in the campaign.

Senator Brice leit for Omaha, and will go from there in a day or two to Washington.

Carisruhe Going to England.

date for the Presidency.

breaking at any moment.

inch an hour.

row moruing.

train from this city.

Used by the Third Party,

BANK TROUBLE IN GOSHEN.

Directors in Secret Session and a Cashier Mentally Disturbed.

ITT ABBOUTATED DAVES MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., June 27 .- The Goshen

Cashler William M. Murray returned from Buenos Ayres. She was commanded by New York at 11 o'clock Sunday night. He denies that the nomination has been yard lying dead with his skuli crushed amid a Capt, F. E. Huribert, and carried a crew of has given signs of mental disturbance for some weeks and had absented himself from presented at the Omaha Convention with his struck in his fail. In answer to a telegram from the directors that he would accept if nominated.

construction of the captain of the Ocean says the stellar ocean say HIGHWAYMEN BY THE SEA. A Philadelphian Waviald at Atlan tic City by Four Men.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 27 .- John Steinle, a merchant of Philadelphia, was found lying senseless in a vacant lot at this place at 5 o'clock this morning. He had Athert Raener who walked into the Outdoor Poor Department at Bellevue Hospital last Wednesday sick and was sent to the Homes original and only lemale member of the New pathic Hospital on Ward's Island, is reported. York Real Estate Exchange, will be married a suburb of this city, are buried beneath a to have died yesterday in Riverside Hospital.

Fifteen Shots in a Street Duel.

WHITEHALL, Ill., June 27.—At Walkerville, seven miles southwest, Frank Painter and Perry Johnson yesterday engaged in a street duel with revolvers. Fifteen shots were fired. Painter was slightly wounded and Johnson fatally injured by a shot in the ab-

Twelve Afraid of Two. NORMAN, Okla., June 27.—Advices from county D say that the United States deputy "On or about July 12. The Committee on marshais, twelve to number, who were searching for the santa Fe train robbers, met the rulten trothers, who were supposed to have committed the crime. a short distance from Tailoga, but did not have the courage to capture them.

Shot an Alleged Mad Dog.

A policeman shot and killed an alleged rabid dog at 143 East Fourth street this morning.

Her owner was G. H. Lovitt, of Yarmouth.

A policeman shot and killed an alleged rabid dog at 143 East Fourth street this morning.

Her owner was G. H. Lovitt, of Yarmouth.

BETWEEN THE ACTS & BRAVO. 10c.

Half Disks. Sc., all-schoose eleganties, are the call bread and Trust Company's vaulte at 88 Fourth avenue.

Dore and his wife and three children occupled a room on the second floor in the rear. and were regarded by their neighbors as a very quiet and respectable family. Last night Dore came home as usual from work at the Cedarhurst Stables, in West his head and dying instantly.

Eighty-third street, where he was a groom, and went to bed. At about midnight Mrs. Dore, wao had been trying to get her baby to sleep and had fallen into a doze, heard a short outery.

She sprang to her feet in time to see her

FRENCH LICE SPRINGS, Ind., June 27 .husband disappearing through the window. National Bank did not open for business this Judge Walter Q. Gresnam, who is stopping Her screams soon awakened the neighbors, morning. The directors are in assion mak-here with his wife, puts a quietus on the one of whom notined the police of what had rumors that he will be the third party candi- happened.

Two policemen found Dore in the back lot of shattered flower pots which he had The body was carried upstairs to the Dore apartments where it is now awaiting the aprival of the Coroner. Mrs. Dore's grief is appalling. She is a refined-looking woman of about thirty. Bhe goes about wringing her hands, but utters no She looks the image of mute despair. Now and then she says, in a scarcely audilower part of the city is under water, and the ble voice : " What will become of the children !" great dike in the west end is in danger of Mrs. Murphy, of 417 Sixth avenue, a sister of the decessed, hurried over to the Dore The water is rising at the rate of balf an home as soon as she was apprised of ber brother's death. To an Evening World re-porter who saw her there Mrs. Murphy said: " My brother was a somnambulist all his life. As a child he often got himself into danerous places while asleep. There can be no doubt that he was in this condition when he He Will Meet His Supporters in This fell out of the window." Mrs. Murphy scouted the idea of possible suicide. the-sea, telephoned to the flotel Normadie Catholic; he was sober and industrious and "My brother," she said, "was a plous of a cheerful disposition. Besides, he loved it is anticipated that by that time Senator lilli will be ready to express himself on the think of suicide."

The two elder ones stood in a corner of th

New York to-morrow.

If is taking a rest with Gen. Earle and his room, where the dead man lay on his bler, family by the shore, and among the other guests are Col. and Mrs. George B. McClellan.

Object, and even the six-months-old baby was At the Cedarhurst stables where Dore had t Is Denied That His Death Resulted proprietors, said to THE EVENING WORLD re-" Dore was an exceptionally good man. His of J. Coleman Drayton, took place to-day at work was perfect. In the nine months that lyde Park, Dutchess County. There was a he was with us, we grew very much attached large attendance of his club associates and to him. One of his mates at the stable actually naval and military men, who went by special cried when he heard of Dore's death. Every-

train from this city.

Mr. Drayton was a graduate of the Naval Academy and had served in the navy. The report that his death had resulted from the blehloride of gold treatment, which he had taken, is emphatically denied by his friends and attending physicians.

It is reported that negotiations are under any looking to a reconciliation between J.

The Only Female Beal Estate Broker Five Square Miles of Chicago's Suburbs Under Water.

original and only ismale member of the New territory adjacent to the village of Dauphin, York Real Estate Exchange, will be married to William G. Mulligan, of Brooklyn, at 8 been collecting in the lake region burst the o'clock this evening at 8t. John's College, last barrier yesterday afternoon at Kighty-Fordham.

early this morning the hood reached surn-side, a village about a mile and a haif from Grand Crossing, and rose at the rate of an inch an hour.

More than a thousand houses between State street and Lake Michigan have been Gooded.

As yet no loss of life has been reported.

Fair.

CHICAGO, June 27.-Dr. Mary Walker has written to Director-General Davis asking that a costume department be established at Dick Moore Wins a Battle.

Injured by a Fall from His Wagon.

would call there to make inquiries, and if 1000 HOUSES FLOODED

(REPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLS.)
CHICAGO, June 27.—Five square miles of Dr. Mary Walker and the World's

the World's Fair, and that she be placed in charge. Director-General Davis's private so-retary says the application will receive due consideration.

St. Paul, defeated Wiley Evans, colored, of California, in thirteen rounds last night at Andalusia. Both are welter weights. The fight was for $250 a side and 75 per cant. of the gate money.

CHICAGO, June 27.—A local paper says there is a probability that Carlsruhe, a full brother samuel Revinon, ag-d sixteen, of 52 lidge of Carlsbad, winner of the American Derby, street, fell from a vender's wagon at Twentywill be taken to England to compete with sixth street and Pifth avenue to-day and English thoroughbred horses for the Derby severely injured. He was sent to the next June over the Epsom course.